

RAVEN DAUDA BIO

Raven Dauda has been a professional actor and storyteller for over twenty-five years.

Notable film and television productions include: Star Trek: Discovery (CBS), Falling Water (USA), Designated Survivor (ABC), Heroes Reborn (NBC), Suits (USA), Orphan Black (BBC America/Space), A Nutcracker Christmas (Hallmark), The Mist (Spike), Bruno & Boots (Aircraft Pictures), Mary Kills People (Shaw Media), Rogue (DirecTV), What Would Sal Do? (Superchannel), Annedroids (Amazon/TVO), Rookie Blue (CTV), Saving Hope (CTV), Nikita (Warner Bros.), Crash and Burn (Showcase), Anatomy of Assistance (CFC), The Firm (NBC), Da Kink In My Hair (Global), The Bridge (CBS), Across the River to Motor City (City TV/CHUM), Would Be Kings (CTV), Riding The Bus With My Sister (CBS), Wonderland (CBC), Child Star (Rhombus Media), Soul Food (Showtime), and The Natalie Cole Story (NBC).

On the theatrical stage, Raven has received Dora Awards for her performances in Margaret Atwood's The Penelopiad (Nightwood Theatre), and Miss Julie: Freedom Summer (Canadian Stage Company/Vancouver Playhouse), and Dora Nominations for her performances in The Minotaur (YPT) and Doubt: A Parable (Canadian Stage Company). Other outstanding productions include: Up The Garden Path (Obsidian Theatre Company), 4.48 Psychosis (Necessary Angel Theatre), Tout Comme Elle (Necessary Angel & Luminato Productions), Wild Dogs (Nightwood Theatre), Intimate Apparel (Obsidian Theatre Company, Canadian Stage Company, The Citadel Theatre & Neptune Theatre Productions), Twilight Café (Theatre Archipelago), and Da Kink In My Hair (Theatre Passe Muraille & Mirvish Productions).

Currently Raven is writing, creating, developing and producing her first solo show entitled Addicted. The play looks at many forms of addiction while incorporating poetry, prose, puppetry, original music and dance. Everything from the puppets and the set to the music and movement have been created by Raven with her full heart & soul... thus making this ground-breaking project a completely integrated immersion of her creative talents and abilities ~ all in the hopes of reaching those who not only struggle with but who have been touched and affected by the many powerful and pervasive aspects of addiction.

Upcoming projects include an independent film about HIV called Disclosure (Goldelox Productions).